

Enlightened Princesses

BRITAIN AND EUROPE, 1700–1820

Kensington Palace, Hampton Court, Tower of London
29–31 October 2017

Co-organized by:

YALE
CENTER
FOR BRITISH
ART

 PAUL MELLON CENTRE
for Studies in British Art

Historic
Royal Palaces

Enlightened Princesses

BRITAIN AND EUROPE, 1700–1820

Kensington Palace,
Hampton Court,
Tower of London
29–31 October 2017

DAY 1: SUNDAY 29 OCTOBER | KENSINGTON PALACE

14:00–17:00 Tea served in Orangery

14:00–15:00 Exhibition tour 1

15:00–16:00 Exhibition tour 2

16:00–17:00 Exhibition tour 3

Enlightened Princesses

BRITAIN AND EUROPE, 1700–1820

Kensington Palace,
Hampton Court,
Tower of London
29–31 October 2017

DAY 2: MONDAY 30 OCTOBER | HAMPTON COURT PALACE, GARDEN ROOM

- 9.00–9.30 Registration and coffee
- 9.30–9.45 Welcome
Adrian Phillips and Amy Meyers
- 9.45–10.30 Keynote lecture
Joanna Marschner
Enlightened Princesses: Britain and Europe, 1700–1820
- 10.30–10.45 Break
- 10.45–13.00 Session 1
Royal women as political agents
MODERATOR Lisa Ford
- Elise Dermineur Queens Consort as political agents: a tentative research framework through the example Queen Louisa Ulrika of Sweden (1720–1782)
- Heather Carroll 'Charlotte has the breeches': the shifting political perception of Queen Charlotte
- Allison Goudie 'A woman of great feminine beauty, but of a masculine understanding': Queen Maria Carolina of Naples and Canova's statue of the king 'as Minerva'
- Martin Eberle Luise Dorothea—Duchess of Saxony-Gotha-Altenburg
- 13.00–14.00 Lunch
- 14.00–16.00 Session 2
Royal women: networks and conversations
MODERATOR Lucy Peltz
- Elizabeth Eger Elizabeth Montagu, 'Queen of the Bluestockings': women and literary authority in the age of Enlightenment
- Lisa Skogh de Zoete Queen Hedwig Eleanora—A Liebhaberin of the arts: political culture and sources of knowledge as part of Northern German Court Culture
- Merit Laine Creative conversations: Queen Louisa Ulrika and the formulation of Swedish court culture in the Age of Liberty
- Sonja Fielitz 'A silent but impressive language': the quietly worked female empowerment of Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz
- 16.00–16.30 Tea
- 16.30–17.30 Discussion
MODERATORS Sebastian Edwards and Desmond Shawe-Taylor
- 17.30–18.30 Drinks reception and musical programme with harpsichord virtuoso Nathaniel Mander
The Clore Learning Centre

Enlightened Princesses

BRITAIN AND EUROPE, 1700–1820

Kensington Palace,
Hampton Court,
Tower of London
29–31 October 2017

DAY 3: TUESDAY 31 OCTOBER | TOWER OF LONDON, NEW ARMOURIES

9.00–9.30 Registration and coffee

9.30–9.45 Welcome: Joanna Marschner and Amy Meyers

9.45–13.00 Session 3

Royal women as patrons of art and architecture

MODERATORS PART 1 Aurélie Chatenet-Calyste; PART 2 Desmond Shawe-Taylor

PART 1

Tara Zanardi

Material temptations: Isabel de Farnesio and the politics of the interior

Veronica Biermann

'Let's have a look': G.L. Bernini's mirror for Queen Christina and her self-image

Christopher Johns

Two queens and a villa: Enlightenment sociability in Turin

PART 2

Christopher Baker

Augusta, Princess of Wales and Jean Etienne Liotard

Heidi Strobel

Queen Charlotte as patron of female artists

13.00–14.00 Lunch

14.00–15.10 Session 4

Royal women and the crafting of image

MODERATOR Matthew Storey

Eva-Lena Karlsson

Sofia Albertina: A Swedish princess from Rococo to Biedermeier

Heather Belnap Jensen

Dynastic dressing: the portraits of Caroline Bonaparte Murat,

Queen of Naples and the art of costume

15.10–16.20 Session 5

Royal women: engaging with nature and technology

MODERATOR Joanna Marschner

Tessa Murdoch

Measuring time at the Hanoverian court: Caroline, Augusta and Charlotte as promoters of clock and watch-making in London

Emily Roy

Catherine the Great's Russian mountain: the imagery of the Thunder Stone

16.20–17.00 Tea

17.00–18.00 Discussion

MODERATOR Helen Watanabe-O'Kelly