

Draft Mr Pitt.
Letter to the Lord Chamberlain
June. Feb 23. 1749.

New Feb 23. 1749.

It is with infinite satisfaction I renew my correspondence with Mr Pitt, by acquainting him with my having seen the Prince of Wales and my Son & Son; care was taken that the Conversation should be general and cordial; they seemed perfectly satisfied: I chose the Meeting should be in the Queen's Apartment, that all parties might have that caution which would at the present time but be judicious. I desire Mr Pitt will confer with the Lord Chancellor that any step which may be necessary for raising the Annual Supplies or any other Measures that the Interests of the Nation may require should not be unseasonably delayed: for I feel the greatest gratitude for the Support and Facility given by the Nation at large during my tedious illness, which I should ill regret if I did not ~~give every possible facility~~ ~~delay in steps~~ ~~which may be necessary to be performed~~ ~~in due time~~ ~~with the greatest exactness~~ through I must decline entering into a particular of myself and ~~and for the rest of my life~~ ~~will always~~ ~~not~~ ~~be able to meet~~ the Duties of this Employment ~~and~~ ~~only~~ ~~superior~~ ~~age which can affect me though I have no fatigue~~ ~~than the care and trouble of the great~~ ~~and necessary business of the nation~~
an attention to the minaces of France and America.
I am anxious to see Mr Pitt as soon as may suit his convenience, as ~~it will be necessary to make some arrangement to my interest and the~~

of the Rabbits which are inseparable must ever place him in the most favourable light
