

A. L. to T. Townshend

July 13 1782

4857

Mr. Secretary Townshend's note accompanying the Minutes of Cabinet is just received, the measure for the safe conveying the East India Fleet through the Channel seems very proper, he is therefore to give such directions as may be necessary for putting this into Execution.

Sir

I have this moment received your Majesty's Commands to which, I will not fail to pay implicit Obedience, & I will accordingly give every Support & assistance in my power to Lord Shelburne. Of this I will take a proper method of apprizing His Lordship. My Attachments has ever been to your Majesty & ever will be; & for this reason I did not think it right to enter into any new Engagement, till I had received your Majesty's Commands on this subject.

I am with the most profound

Windsor July 15th 1792.

Mr. Jenkinson's constant Assurances of personal Attachment to Me is the cause of my writing to Him on so extraordinary a position of Affairs as this present. The mark is now certainly cast off it is no less than a struggle whether I am to be dictated to by Mr. Fox, who says we that He must have the whole direction of this country; Lord Shelburne certainly must and shall have my fullest support; therefore since Mr. Jenkinson will give him every degree of Assistance. The speaker has explained ~~tho~~ good his position, but that his knowledge of my wishes was necessary to decide such a step.
Lord Shelburne is apprized that I mean to write on this head.

in King's Keppel,

The Account Ad. Keppel has sent of the Dutch Fleet being out of the Straits on the 10th shows the intelligence I mention'd having arriv'd at Y. Bay from Rotterdam was founded; I suppose by their steering they mean to go along our Coast and perhaps some of their Ships may go farther about to join the Combined Fleet.

The Dutch will feel this fresh blow on the Coast of Guinea.
